following their participation in the training course to become a tutor and having obtained the Tutor ad experimentum certificate for carrying out the "UP2ME" courses, by signing this deed, declares

- to have received the material involved in the training course which they participated in, that must be used to carry out the coming UP2ME courses;
- to acknowledge that the material received is and will remain under the exclusive ownership of AFN and must, thus, be returned on AFN's mere request; to be committed, under their own responsibility:

- to use the material received exclusively in the context of UP2ME experimental courses, which should, however, be communicated in advance to and authorised in writing by AFN, through the specifically-created project central team;
- to keep the material received, and not allow others to use the contents;
- not to use the material received for purposes other than those regarding carrying out the UP2ME experimental courses, not to disclose it, promote it, modify it or make use of it - directly or indirectly - whether for business or professional purposes, or otherwise.

The undersigned, thus, with their signature at the bottom of this document, relieves AFN of all responsibilities in connection to illicit, unauthorised use of the material received or use of unauthorised material, and will personally accept any responsibility.
